IMPORTANT INFORMATION

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Section 21 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 provides that before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, upon what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of matter:

- That diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- That is of common knowledge;
- That your insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- As to which compliance with your duty of disclosure is waived by the insurer.

NON-DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, Underwriters may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, Underwriters may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

MATERIAL CHANGES TO RISK

The policy provides that the insured shall throughout the insurance period give notice as soon as reasonably practicable of any material change in any fact, activity or circumstance as described in the proposal.

SUBROGATION

The policy provides that insured shall take all reasonable steps to preserve Underwriters' rights of subrogation, and to assist Underwriters in the exercise of such rights.

POLICY CANCELLATION

In the event of policy cancellation by the insured, SUA's cancellation rates will apply.
